

Originality Reports

(Part of G Suite Enterprise for Education)

Turnitin

(Standalone Product)

Integrates with Google Classroom	Yes	No, does not integrate with Google Classroom
Students already enrolled in Google Classroom	Yes	No, enrollment must be done individually, with a code, a list, or through self-enroll
Allows students to proactively scan each assignment prior to submission	Yes, up to 3 times	No, similarity report generated after work is submitted
Shows percent of work plagiarized	Yes	Yes
Links to webpage where plagiarized content resides	Yes	Yes
Integrates with traditional LMS	Yes, through assignments, any LMS that has a LTI	Yes with Blackboard, Canvas, D2L, Sakai, Schoology
Scans internet resources for plagiarism	Yes	Yes
Scans Drive data in your G Suite domain for plagiarism	Yes	Unless it was previously submitted to Turnitin
Scans work previously turned in for plagiarism	Yes, if it was in the same G Suite domain (in beta)	Yes, keeps previously submitted work in a cloud database, external to your domain data
Teacher can submit on behalf of the student	No, teachers cannot submit for students	Yes
Provide student feedback with comments, rubrics, and voice comments	Yes, part of Google Classroom/Google Docs	Yes
Peer review capabilities	Would take some manual work to get assignments to peers	Yes, allows for peer reviews either anonymously or attributed
Includes Gradebook without extra fees	Yes	No, Gradebook requires an additional fee